United Bankers' Bank Announces Two New Additions to its Correspondent Banking Team

BLOOMINGTON, MN – Dwight Larsen, President and CEO of United Bankers' Bank (UBB) is pleased to announce the addition of Jeanne Speas and Peter Ziegler to its Correspondent Sales Team.

Jeanne joins UBB with over 24 years of correspondent banking experience. She will be teaming up with Shane Bellefy, Vice President, Correspondent Banking Officer, in her home state of Iowa building relationships and connecting community bankers with the solutions they need to be competitive and successful in their markets. Speas is based out of Waterloo and will be calling on community banks located throughout Eastern Iowa.

"Jeanne's extensive experience serving the correspondent banking needs of community banks throughout the state of Iowa, along with her ability to develop long-term relationships with her customers make her an outstanding addition to our sales team," stated Jay Syverson, Senior Vice President, Regional Sales Manager, "She and Shane will complement each other's strengths to create a motivated correspondent banking team and dedicated resource for Iowa bankers."

Peter joins UBB with more than 20 years of industry experience, with specializations in commercial banking, business development, relationship management and electronic payment solutions. Based out of Aurora, Peter will be building relationships and assisting community bankers in Illinois.

"A lifelong Illinois resident with extensive banking experience, Peter has developed a deep knowledge of the banking needs and challenges facing community banks throughout the state," stated Chris Knight, Senior Vice President, Regional Sales Manager, "his expertise will foster UBB's relationships with community bankers and assist them in finding the right solutions for their institutions."
